

Affidavit of Rumpelstiltskin

1 My name is Rumpelstiltskin. I am 1,525 years old. I have a business, and I am my own
2 boss. I can do something nobody else can do: I can turn straw into gold. However, I am
3 very lonely. I have lived many years with no family and only a few friends. Because I can 4 turn straw into gold, many people ask for my help, but what can they pay me with? Gold?
5 I do not need gold! So I always ask for a different kind of payment. I always try to be fair 6 and reasonable.

7 I met Anne Miller when she scammed me<sup>1</sup> last summer. The King had wanted to meet me
8 (kings always want to meet me), so I had gone to see him. When I was there, I heard a man 9 tell the King his daughter could turn straw into gold and the man brought his daughter to 10 prove it. I had never known a person who could do what I can do, so I wanted to meet her!
11 However, soon I heard somebody crying from one of the King's rooms. I asked her what was 12 wrong. She told me the King was going to kill her father for lying if she could not turn straw 13 into gold. I felt very bad for this woman, so I offered to help her if she gave me her ring. But 14 that wasn't enough for the King, and he wanted her to do it again, so I helped her again, 15 and she gave me her necklace. After that, the King made her do it again, but this time he 16 said he would marry her if she did it! At that point, I became suspicious<sup>2</sup>. I think she was 17 working together with the King to scam me into making a lot of gold for them. She was so 18 rude! I thought she was only worried that the King would kill her father, but now I see she 19 and the King were on the same team. After I finished working all night on the second night, 20 before I left, I remember saying, "Sorry we have not really introduced ourselves yet, What 21 is your name?" and she just said "Anne." and turned around. Extremely rude. She never 22 even asked what my name was. Even though I was suspicious, I did not want her father to 23 die, so I agreed to help her one more time. You have to understand: I have been alone for so 24 long. To help her before her marriage, I asked her to give me her and the King's first baby 25 so I could have a family, too. I just want someone to love.

26 So, about one year later, Anne had a baby. I was so happy. I raced<sup>3</sup> to the King's castle to 27 bring my baby home. I was shocked and outraged when she wanted to pay me in some other 28 way. She promised me a baby, and I had done everything right, but she still did not want to 29 pay me. I was heartbroken. I told her, "You never even asked my name!" and she became 30 very strange. Every day, she asked me if my name was John, Stanley, Steven, Richard, etc.
31 Every day, I asked her, "Why are you guessing names?" and every day, I told her "My name 32 is very strange, please stop guessing." After about a week<sup>4</sup>, I guess she asked my neighbor 33 what my name was because she screamed "RUMPELSTILTSKIN!!! Now I don't have to 34 give you my baby!"

35 What? That is NOT what we agreed! Why would I agree to that? What a stupid thing to 36 say. She never gave me my child. I have cried myself to sleep every night. I do not even 37 have the energy to turn straw into gold now. I feel like Anne destroyed my life. So I paid a 38 lawyer to sue her, and that is why I made wrote this statement.
